ORDER IS ISSUED PANIC. SHOCK. SPEEDY. DEATH RULES IN

TEN NEW REGIMENTS CALLED FOR

FOR NEW RECRUITS

Examination Officers Must of Applicants Have Fought Will be Rigid in Late War

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The order for the enlistment of ten new regiments of infantry were issued today by the Secretary of War. It is as follows:

"WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, July 6, 1899.—By the direction of the President, the following general rules are prescribed for recruiting from the country at large United States volunteers as provided by the act of Congress approved March 2, 1899, published in General Orders No. 55, of 1899, headquarters of the army, Adjutant-General's office, and organizing the same into regiments:

TEXT OF THE RULES.

"The strength of regiments, officers and enlisted men will be provided for by sections 4 and 5 of the act of Congress approved March 2, 1899.

"The regiments to be recruited in the United States will be designated Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, Thirty-second, Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Regiments of United States Volunteers. The regiments of United States Volunteers to be recruited in the United States will be designated Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, Thirty-second, Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Regiments of United States Volunteers. The regiments of United States Volunteers to be recruited in the United States will be designated Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, Thirty-second, Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Regiments of United States Volunteers.

OFFICERS' QUALIFICATIONS.

"Applicants for commissions, except officers of the regular army, will be required to pass a satisfactory examination as to age, moral, mental and physical capacity to command troops, and must have had service during the Spanish-American war. The recruiting service of the regular army will be charged with recruiting from the country at large, men for service in these volunteer regiments, who are placements will be made for the period ending June 30, 1901, unless sooner discharged, and without restrictions as to citizenship or educational qualifications, but in all other respects, and in the manner of recruiting, as are prescribed for recruiting the regular service. Except in special cases only, unwarmed men will be enlisted for these regiments.

RIGID EXAMINATIONS.

"In view of the probable severe service of these regiments and the climatic conditions to which they may be subjected, the physical qualifications of both officers and enlisted men as to age, moral, mental and physical capacity to command troops, and must have had service during the Spanish-American war. The recruiting service of the regular army will be charged with recruiting from the country at large, men for service in these volunteer regiments, who are placements will be made for the period ending June 30, 1901, unless sooner discharged, and without restrictions as to citizenship or educational qualifications, but in all other respects, and in the manner of recruiting, as are prescribed for recruiting the regular service. Except in special cases only, unwarmed men will be enlisted for these regiments.

JEFF

Champion Arrives and Speaks of Reliance Boys.

James J. Jeffries, champion pugilist of the world, and his party arrived in Oakland from the East this afternoon. The champion, accompanied by Charles McCall and Ross O'Neil, went directly to San Francisco, while Jack Jeffries and trainer Billy Delaney stopped off in this city.

HOME AGAIN.

"Yes, we are very glad to get back to California," said the champion to a Tribune reporter, "but I can't stay near as long as I would like to. I want to visit with my people at Los Angeles several weeks, but I find it will be but a short stay, so we have to start East again in about two weeks."

FITZ HIT HIM.

"Yes, Fitz hit me a few good punches, but my new style of croaking and fighting low footed him, and during the first six rounds I did not even get warmed up."

"We have been playing to great crowds all along the road. I umpired a baseball game for three innings and then sparring a few rounds in one town."

"The belle of the Buffalo gave me this fine diamond pin which you see represents two bohemian's humors."

"At Denver the boys made me ride up town on a wagon with a big boiler."

"We did not forget the Reliance boys, and they did not forget me. We feel this is our home. Some fellow stole my Reliance pin in the East, but I'll soon have another."

AS TO SHARKEY.

When asked what he thought about his match with Sharkey the big fellow laughed and said:

"I only want to get him in the ring once, that's all."

Haywards' Hotel Has Narrow Escape From Fire.

The Haywards' Hotel at Haywards had a call from the fire chief last night at 9:30 o'clock which, for a time, threatened the destruction of the venerable landmark and the guests admit into a panic of excitement. The structure was saved, however, through the heroic efforts and presence of mind of a corps of Chinese servants under their leader, Ah Sam, who was ably seconded by R. E. Ayer of this city.

The fire was occasioned by the falling of the stick of a rocket on the roof of the vegetable house, which adjoins the hotel. The roof became ignited almost immediately. The cry of "Fire, Fire!" rang through the rooms and corridors. People who had gone to bed for the night were hastily aroused and for a time there was a great confusion of goods such as may be expected under such circumstances.

Ed Reed, son of George W. Reed of this city, ran for the Haywards Fire Department. In the meantime, Ah Sam had organized his Chinese into a band of fire-fighters and they succeeded in deluging the burning roof and keeping most of the main structure from being consumed. By this time the Haywards Fire Department appeared on the scene and nothing was left for them to be done. With the extinguishing of the flames, the frightened guests returned to their quarters. One of these, G. W. Howe, an attorney of San Francisco, became so excited that as soon as he reached the open air he fired off his revolver half a dozen times, for what purpose is unknown.

There was a large number of guests in the hotel at the time, among them being Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reed, Bob Graham, John F. Farnham and R. E. Ayer of this city.

It was hoped, being run by Mrs. Olney, that the hotel was insured, but it is the property of Easton & Eldridge of San Francisco.

BULGARIA'S REVOLUTION.

Startling Reports That Seem to Have No Foundation.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

BUDAPEST, July 6.—Newspapers here publish a story from Belgrade to the effect that a revolution was inaugurated at Sofia, according to the newspapers published, a mob paraded the streets, some of the troops joining in the demonstration. It was added that Prince Ferdinand had fled the country, and that the telegraph wires had been cut.

Advices received today from Belgrade state that there is absolutely no confirmation of the alleged revolution in Bulgaria. Officials here entirely discredit the statements in the Belgrade newspapers.

VIENNA, July 6.—Nothing is known here of revolutionary disturbances at Sofia. The report is utterly discredited.

WHEELER TO PHILIPPINES.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—President McKinley told a delegation of Southern Congressmen who called upon him today that it was his intention to send General Wheeler to the Philippines at an early date. He also said that he did not think that more than the 10,000 troops already decided upon would be needed.

GEN. WHEELER ASSIGNED.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Brigadier-General Joseph Wheeler was today ordered to report to General Otis at Manila for service in the Philippines.

AN IDAHO MINE STARTS UP

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WALLACE, Idaho, July 6.—The Mammoth mine started today with twenty-five men. This is the first effort made to work it since martial law closed it down.

DEATH TAKES AN OLD PIONEER.

Pioneers and old-timers in Oakland will learn with regret of the death of one of their number, J. M. Ernest. Mr. Ernest died in San Francisco a few days ago and was buried there yesterday. His daughter's home in this city.

Mr. Ernest was 55 years of age, and came to California in the early days of the gold rush. He was known among the early settlers, and was for several years a highly respected citizen of Oakland. His son is Officer H. C. Ernest.

Strauter and His Horse.

The case of P. P. Strauter, the colored hackman charged with cruelty to a horse, will be tried in the Police Court July 22. Strauter asserts that his horse was sick and that he was treating it with kindness when arrested.

Took a Dose of Strychnine.

The inquest at Livermore last night over the remains of Mrs. Julia Hayes resulted in a verdict of suicide by strychnine poisoning, owing to melancholia.

Arrested for Fighting.

George Greene of Emeryville was arrested last evening on a charge of battery, for fighting.

Earthquake Stirrs Up Sections of the State.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SANTA CRUZ, July 6.—At 12:05 o'clock today an unusually heavy shock of earthquake was felt here. The vibrations were from east to west. No damage.

A PANIC IN SALINAS.

SALINAS, July 6.—A heavy shock of earthquake was experienced shortly after noon today. The vibrations lasted over fifteen seconds. The shock, which was from east to west, was continuous and accompanied by heavy rumblings. People who were at their meals in the various hotels rushed into the streets, fearful of the sudden collapse of the buildings. With the exception of the breaking of several windows and lamps, no great damage was done.

SEVERE AT SAN JOSE.

SAN JOSE, July 6.—There was quite a severe earthquake here at 12:10 o'clock today. Mount Hamilton observatory reports by telephone that was plainly felt there. The data, however, from the records there had not been made out when this message is sent, but will be some time during the afternoon.

LIGHT IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—A slight earthquake shock was felt throughout this city shortly after noon today.

PACIFIC GROVE.

PACIFIC GROVE, July 6.—Two distinct shocks of earthquake were felt here today shortly after noon. No damage.

DEL MONTE SHAKEN UP.

DEL MONTE, Cal., July 6.—A heavy earthquake shock lasting about twenty seconds, was felt here today and at Monterey. No damage reported.

AT WATSONVILLE.

WATSONVILLE, Cal., July 6.—A severe earthquake shock took place here at 12:15 o'clock. No damage has been reported.

THE SHOCK AT STOCKTON.

STOCKTON, July 6.—An earthquake shock was felt here today about 12:05 P. M. The shock was pronounced, but not violent, and the vibrations were east and west.

A very light earthquake shock was also felt in Oakland a few minutes after noon.

GUILTY.

Captain Neall Is Dismissed From the Service.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The President has approved the sentence of the court, rendered in the case of Captain John M. Neall, Fourth Cavalry, and the officer has been ordered to be dismissed from the military service.

Neall was convicted by court-martial of violations of the army regulations in connection with his administration of mess funds of his company and other financial matters.

He was stationed at the Presidio at San Francisco at the time of his suspension from duty.

FIERCE RIOTS IN BARCELONA

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LONDON, July 6.—Despite assertions to the contrary, rioting at Barcelona was renewed last night. A mob destroyed a number of shops, and were charged by the police. The mob fired revolvers and shotguns, and several persons were killed. In the encounter three gendarmes and a number of rioters were wounded. Blatant arrests were made.

It is expected that martial law will be declared today.

SHAMROCK'S ENORMOUS SAIL.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LONDON, July 6.—The Yachting World in today's issue says that the yacht Shamrock grounded where she did few days ago shows that the challenger draws upwards of twenty feet of water.

The trial races between the Shamrock and Britannia will take place in the Solent in spite of the reports to the contrary.

The Shamrock's mainmast is the largest ever made in this country, and presents a beautiful spectacle. The canvas alone weighs nearly 2,500 pounds.

PRIZE FOR LOS ANGELES.

LOS ANGELES, July 6.—"I have never found the atmosphere for any of our previous conventions so friendly as they are here today in Los Angeles," says Secretary Sheppard of the N. E. A.

The educators have for a week past been arriving at the rate of from 400 to 500 a day, and today will add at least a thousand more to the number here.

Arrivals today are G. H. Van Stickle, Superintendent of the North State Schools, Denver; J. C. Greeley, Denver; Miss Gertrude C. Grunwald, principal of the Burton School, Chicago; Superintendent D. R. Snyder of Greeley, Colo.

There are to be no regular excursions for the teachers this week, but those already here are putting in the time sight-seeing in the canyons, at the seashore, the missions and among the orange groves.

The Columbia Outsails Defender in the Trial Race.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The weather early today gave promise of being favorable for the first trial race between the yachts Columbia and Defender. Today's contest is for a $500 cup offered by the New York Yacht Club.

The boats were both anchored off Tompkinsville, S. I., last night. At 5:45 o'clock this morning, Defender was taken in tow by a tug and started for Sandy Hook. She was followed half an hour later by Columbia. They were cheered by the crews of the various boats in the bay, among them the transport Kirkland, which was followed by a three-knot breeze, and there was considerable fog off shore. The sky was darkening and rain was threatening.

Both boats passed Sandy Hook at 11 A. M., on their way to the starting point, Sandy Hook Lightship.

The wind was strengthened at 11 A. M. to about five miles an hour. At 11:15 the Columbia, the Shamrock's boat, hoisted a signal, ordering the start to be from Sandy Hook Lightship. At this time it was raining heavily and almost impossible to see the Hook Lightship from shore.

The rain stopped at about 11:30 o'clock, and though the sky was not clear, it looked better to the westward. Defender was first seen at the starting point, off Sandy Hook Lightship, at 11:35, and Columbia was also made out a little later, and it is believed that there would be some delay in starting.

At 12:30 the Corsair signaled that the race would be sailed on a triangular course, 100 miles to each leg. The preparatory signal was fired at 12:35. The starting gun was heard at about 12:55.

Defender crossed the line at 12:58 and Columbia at 12:59:30, both yachts on the port tack.

At 1:10 P. M. both boats were on the port tack, sailing inshore near the starting point. Defender was then fairly good, and at 1:12 they changed to the starboard tack.

At 1:30 a dispatch from the Highlands of Navasink says: "Both yachts are being run southeast, but the weather was so thick that they could not be distinguished from each other."

At 1:50 the boats were about three miles due east of Starbright N. J., sailing inshore on the port tack with every stitch of canvas drawn. It was hard to say which was in the lead at that time, the race being so close.

The observer at the Highlands of Navasink reports that Columbia turned the first stake boat at 2:30, and that Defender crossed the line at 2:35.

At 2:50 P. M. Columbia seemed to lead by a quarter of a mile.

At 3:10 the boats were lost in the haze. When last seen, Columbia appeared to be in the lead.

At 3:30 the yachts were still out of sight in the fog. Just as the evening twilight fell, the yachts could not be distinguished from each other.

COLUMBIA WINS BASILY.

HIGHLANDS OF NAVASINK, July 6.—4:19 P. M.—The first boat has crossed the finish line.

At 4:18 P. M.—The second boat has just crossed the line.

Columbia finished first. It is very hazy. Columbia crossed the line about two minutes before the Shamrock.

It is estimated that Columbia turned the second stake at 3:45 and Defender at 3:48. Columbia at that time was constantly increasing her lead.

NEGROES DROP FROM TREES AND PERISH

CENTRAL TEXAS

TERRIBLE CONDITION MANY LIVES LOST IN THE FLOODED DISTRICTS.

OF AFFAIRS IN SOUTH.

ST. LOUIS, July 6.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Dallas, Texas, says: At 11 A. M. today a short dispatch was received from a line man at Dewey, just across the Brazos river from Sealey. It read:

TERRIBLE SITUATION.

"River falling slowly since 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Conditions here terrible. Everything in country swept away. Large number of lives lost in homes. Looks like starvation for those left. Situation has not been exaggerated. Several days before line repairs can be made with anything like a system."

This telegram was received over a wire applied from Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway and Postal Telegraph Company's line, and is the first that has been working since Sealey cut theory for several days. The wire only worked five minutes, and was then lost. Efforts to connect since have failed.

NO RELIEF BOATS.

Shortly after this information was received by wire Deputy Sheriff Swearingin, at Sealey, said over the long-distance telephone:

"There is no improvement in this section of the food district. If anything, the situation is growing worse. No relief boats have yet reached here from Houston or Galveston. Sealey and neighboring towns have almost exhausted their resources for relief."

LIVES LOST.

"Another negro family was seen from where drowning, cut from land about two miles, this morning. Several lives have been lost since last night, among the refugees on the mound near old San Felipe. A number of negroes fell into the water from two pine from sheer exhaustion, after hanging three days and nights. A rumor is current here of an awful disaster near Richwood, below Sealey, in Fort Bend county. As we are cut off from all that southern section, we cannot tell definitely what has happened, but the situation naturally must be as bad as here, if not worse."

GOVERNMENT AID GIVEN.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The War Department has granted the request of the Governor of Texas for aid for flood sufferers. Such Government boats as are available will be placed at the disposal of the State, and the rations asked for will be issued at once.

RELIEF TRAIN ON THE WAY.

James Collinson, superintendent of machinery for the Santa Fe Railroad, left today on a special train for the flooded district, carrying provisions for the destitute. Twenty-five row boats, fully manned and provisioned, were taken to save life and property. Governor Sayers has been asked by Representative Fowler to call a special session of the Legislature to relieve the sufferers.

The Santa Fe main line has been abandoned between Galveston and the Brazos river. Trains west of the river are running on scheduled time. The Southern Railway and the M. & T. T. across the Brazos were reported to have been swept away this morning.

Gen. Henderson Sees A Young Lochinvar Who Resented Sisterly Interference.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LOS ANGELES, July 6.—Two young ladies residing at Alhambra, a suburb of Los Angeles, were arrested at 11 A. M. today, charged with assault with a deadly weapon and battery. The young ladies are Misses Irene and Stella Macey, and they objected to Macey's attention to their sister Maggie. It came courtship Maggie with a shotgun, and poked the muzzle of the weapon into the face of one sister while he threatened to shoot the other.

THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1899.

Dawson City has had another big fire. They go to great extremes up there, trying to keep warm.

The alligator at the Chutes was misnamed when he was called Weyler. It is a natural-born fighter, and, what is more, invariably wins.

The Spanish Senate has only just returned to ratifying the treaty of peace with the United States. It was a bitter dose, but it had to go down.

No wonder barn-stormers keep away from Petaluma. The little up-country city contributed over 15,000 eggs to the market last year to keep company with the ham sent up from the San Joaquin.

Now is the time for Los Angeles to take another of those boom convulsions in which she so frequently indulges. The National Educational Convention is in progress there, and fully 5,000 visitors are in town.

A German officer has invented a lamp for use in war time which can be carried in a soldier's knapsack without perceptibly increasing the weight. Perhaps that is the only sort of "light" it is good for, though.

Dreyfus is having a hard time catching up with the four years he lost while on Devil's Island. It would surprise most people, anyhow, if they could see a list of all the changes that have occurred in that time.

Another gang of counterfeiters has been unearthed in Philadelphia. The makers of spurious coin have probably flocked to the sleepy city because they figured that there was little likelihood of encountering any wide-awake detectives there.

Assessor Dodge, across the bay, is making a great showing with his property valuations, but just wait until the Supervisors, sitting as a Board of Equalization, get through with them. They haven't got those corporation knives up their sleeves for nothing.

Our Ambassador at Berlin had better get a press censor if he wants to preserve his reputation in this country. A dispatch from there states that he celebrated the Fourth with a party of friends who were all on the spree. The cablegram omitted to say anything about the spree being a river.

The California delegates to the National Convention of the Epw Lherocugenosy Convention of the Epworth League have been instructed to do all in their power to secure for the State the gathering in 1901. Why not make the program complete and the best that can be presented, by having them try to locate it in Oakland?

The American girls are not the only good-looking products of this country—the men are heard from sometimes. At a reception Tuesday to our Commissioners from The Hague, a chorus of female Hollanders sang "How lovely are the messengers who bring us good tidings of peace." What a large time our representatives must be having over there.

COMING AT LAST.

"Wolf" has been cried so often about the return from the Philippines of the California soldiers, that now that that event is really about to occur it is difficult to get the people to believe it. There can be no questioning the matter, though, this time. All the previous reports sent out on the subject were press dispatches in which "the wish was father to the thought," and every little move or indication of return was immediately snapped up and magnified into an absolute conclusion.

On this occasion, however, the matter is beyond all dispute, for General Ochs has officially notified the department at Washington on the subject, his dispatch reading, "The California Infantry and Artillery to the number of 1,400, with discharged men, will take the Sherman, now landing at Negros."

Allowing for all delays, therefore, our brave boys will reach here not later than August 6th, and will probably arrive several days before that time. Actual preparations for their welcome can consequently with confidence be commenced, for there is no probability contingency that can now arise to change the program that carries such welcome news throughout the length and breadth of the State.

CORRECTION OF CRIMINALS.

Penologists throughout the country are much interested in the move made by California as regards the treatment of her incorrigibles, and though in a few instances condemnation is expressed of the system of perpetual solitary confinement, the consensus of opinion is that it will bring about the end desired.

There is no punishment a convict dreads so much as to be cut off from all communication with his fellow men. He will laugh at a bread and water diet—even the whipping post that is still in use in Georgia and Delaware has no terror for the hardened criminal; but the thought of being placed alone in a dungeon, where he can see or hear nothing but what he can glean from an uncommunicative guard, possesses for him terrors second only to the grave.

Some day California will undoubtedly adopt the plan urged by Prison Director Fitzgerald, of grading the prisoners into classes regulated by their good conduct. His idea, which is based upon the English system, is that each prisoner shall be placed in solitary confinement on a diet of bread and water. After a certain number of months, if his conduct has been good, he is advanced to class No. 2, where he is given more privileges, such as a bed and a few additions to his diet. Another probationary term then passes, and he reaches the highest class, where he is accorded as much freedom as is consistent with prison life, and is allowed to communicate with his fellow convicts. For any infraction of the rules he is sent back to the first class, and has to work his way through all the stages again until he reaches the position of grace from which he fell.

To regulate our prisoners in this way will require the remodeling of the penitentiaries to the extent of making provisions for the various classes, and as this cannot be done at the present time, the directors have agreed the next best thing—the division into two classes, one of which is perpetual solitary confinement and the other the general prison life. As the new system has only just gone into operation, there is no way yet of measuring its success, but the knowledge of the habits and fears of the average criminal makes it reasonably certain that it will at least go a long way toward bringing about the desired result.

In the contest that is waging in Belgium as to "King or Republic," it should be easy to pick the winner. These old-time monarchial heavyweights are nearly all in the ha-ha-ha class.

Sparrows Smashed the Headlight

Henry J. Warbeck, an engineer on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, says that he saw a battle between a flock of sparrows and a railroad engine, in which the engine came off second best. A crowd between this city and Oswego is indicated by thousands of English sparrows of a most pernicious turn of mind, and they have long resented the grating rush of the locomotive as it dashed through the woods. Many of them have hurled themselves against the locomotive, only to meet instant death.

Last Wednesday the birds were strongly reinforced and evidently determined to make the attack a decisive one. It was almost dark when the train dashed with a shrill note into a tunnel. Simultaneously there was an answering challenge from a thousand throats, and as many feathered leaders hurled themselves against the cab window. With such violence did they come that the headlight glass was broken, the light extinguished, and the machine had to be brought to a halt. With considerable difficulty fireman McNamara made his way to the headlight and placed a new glass in position, while angry wings whirled about his head. When he returned to the cab he found his streaming from wounds in his face, the result of numerous vicious pecks. A wide screen has now been placed over the light to prevent similar occurrences.—New York Press.

"BECAUSE YOU LOVE ME."
Because you love me, I have for you
New joys that were not mine before;
Now stars have lightened up my sky
With glories growing more and more.
Because you love me, I can raise
To heights of fame and power as I please;
Because you love me, I can learn
The highest use of every hour.

Because you love me, I can choose
To look the part of dear ones and see
The light of heaven in the Now
Before I have to wait for the Hereafter.
Because you love me, I can wait
With patient patience until I am blessed;
Because you love me, all my life
Is filled with unimagined rest;
Yes, even life is full of bliss,

WHEN WE GROW OLD.

When we grow old, dear love, and from my eyes
The light and brilliance of my hot youth
And all the fatness you are praising now
Casts but its wealth of life and cheek
And brow.
What do you say to our golden vision then?
I ask you—will you love me faithfully
When we grow old?

CRAIGIE SHARP REPLIES TO BOARD OF WORKS.

WILL GIVE THE FLAG AND POLE TO THE CITY.

At a meeting to be held this evening the Fourth of July Committee will formally hand over to the city the big flag and pole to be done with as the city may see fit, after which their work being done, they will disband.

Craigie Sharp says: "Of course some people are dissatisfied. It wouldn't be natural if they were not. But we think we have done a good work for the city and pay no attention to the growlers. Oakland needed a flag pole. Every other city I know of has one. Now we have given Oakland one that we can say is as good as any in the country."

"As to the place where we have put it, why there was no other place where we could put it. The City Hall lot might be sold any time and the pole would have to be taken down. Besides, one properly owned or threatened to get out an injunction on us if we put it up on the plaza. Where it is it will stay until the city wants it removed."

"The Committee has done all that it engaged to do and now the flag belongs to the city. We have no more to say about it."

Yesterday at the meeting of the Board of Works the members criticized the men who planted the flag pole on Broadway.

THE ROUNDER.

"Splice my main topsail," said Commodore Ourestone, "but it seems to me that everybody in town is looking for a fight. Councilman Schaffer and Superintendent of Streets Miller are going at each other in hammer and tongs style. I wonder where this thing is going to end. Then again Mr. Schaffer wants an explanation as to why he was not invited to attend the banquet given by Councilman Felton Taylor to the members of the City Council. It appears to me that everybody must put hard to the leeward or else something is going to drop at the City Hall. There will be a wreck sure. I can see the city's ship going right for the rocks. Captain Snow had better have a care if he wants to make a big city out of this town."

I heard Peter J. Crosby read the Declaration of Independence at Haywards on the Fourth. Mr. Crosby, the town of Haywards is too small for a man of your ability. By the way, Asa V. Mendelhall recited "Drake's Address" in a masterly manner.

We ought to be proud of our Congressman. I heard him make a speech at Haywards on the Fourth. He was the Orator of the Day. I want to say that Victor H. Metcalf is every inch an orator and an intellectual giant. I predict that he will make a grand record in Congress.

Theodore Meek, ex-Deputy County Clerk, told me yesterday that he is not yet placed for a position.

They tell me that the deputies in the Street Department are on the anxious seat. They do not know whether they are going to be re-elected or not.

J. M. Page is a sure winner for the position of keeper of the insane at the Receiving Hospital.

I met a lady friend this morning, who said: "Have you heard the latest scandal in town. It's in high circles and it's rich, rare and racy." And she positively refused to even give me a tip on the story.

Felton Taylor said to me: "I did not do the inviting to the banquet held at my house in honor of the Councilmen. We only had Republican Councilmen in attendance. I trust Mr. Schaffer will see the matter in the right light."

HONOR TO SOCIETY

WHAT HAS OAKLAND SOCIETY DONE FOR CHARITY?
—MRS. JOHN A. BRITTON.

Mrs. John A. Britton of 555 Thirteenth street inherits her charitable tendencies from her mother, who was one of the most prominent leaders in charitable work. Mrs. Britton gives a great deal of the relief of the worthy poor, but she does it in such an unostentatious manner that the public seldom hears of it. To the poor Mrs. Britton's name and kindness are synonymous.

WOMEN WHO WORK

MISS ANNIE DE BOCK, STENOGRAPHER.

Miss Annie M. De Bock is employed in the insurance office of J. B. Lanktree on Broadway as stenographer. She has held the position for about a year, and has given entire satisfaction. Her work is accurately and rapidly performed, and she is thoroughly conversant with the details of the office. Miss De Bock has taken a great interest in her work, and has learned so rapidly that she is now entrusted with the transcription of much of the most important business. Mrs. De Bock is very popular and has many friends both in this city and in Alameda, where she resides.

STREET CAR MEN.

FRED D. ELLIOTT, EAST OAKLAND LINE.

Fred D. Elliott has for five years past been an employee on the East Oakland street car line. Half of that time he has served as motorman, and now he studiously looks after the collection of nickels. Mr. Elliott has been a resident of this State for ten years, half of which time he has spent in this city. He is married, and is 30 years of age. Mr. Elliott is satisfied with the duties of his present occupation, but thinks the responsibility and anxiety of motorman are more in keeping with his tastes. Mr. Elliott is reliable and has a record of which he may be proud.

FOR POLICEMEN.

P. J. GARRITY, PATROLMAN.

P. J. Garrity went on the police force as a special officer. He commenced to wear the star of a regular about two years ago, being one of a number of young men who at that time were added to the force. Mr. Garrity is a pleasant gentleman, devotedly attached to the duties of his office and, what is more, takes pride in the trust confided in him. He is 35 years of age, unmarried and as methodical in his habits as an eight-day clock.

A FEW WORDS TO THE THOUGHTFUL PEOPLE OF OAKLAND.

By THE EDITOR.

To the readers of THE TRIBUNE: The interview presented in THE TRIBUNE last evening from A. S. Macdonald, just returned from the East, is something to command attention. It is filled with encouragement and suggestion for Oakland. It affords our wide-awake and public spirited citizens something to think about.

Mr. Macdonald comes back to Oakland from his inspection and study of a number of the largest of the Eastern cities well supplied with blinis and plans for the benefit of Oakland. The conditions of prosperity and business activity which he there observes are encouraging to us, because they indicate a phase in the country's progress that is of a universal character and is something in which Oakland is bound to share.

Then Mr. Macdonald's forecast of the peculiar and independent progress immediately before Oakland and the Pacific Coast, while large and enthusiastic enough to take away the breath of those of our people who have not as yet given close attention to this important subject, is not a whit in excess of the indications and the controlling facts. His predictions that passengers at no distant day will go from our City Hall under the bay to the heart of San Francisco by pneumatic tubes inside of five minutes, that Oakland by reason of cheap Asiatic coal in connection with its limitless water front, will become the manufacturing seat of the Pacific Coast, with factories and shipyards extending all the way to Antioch, does not occasion such surprise and skepticism as the statement a few years ago by one of our ministers that he expected to live to see an electric railway running to Haywards with homes lining its route as far as Fruitvale.

One practical suggestion which Mr. Macdonald bases upon these cheerful calculations are worthy of the close attention of every thoughtful and patriotic citizen of Oakland.

THE EDITOR.

JOHN L. HOWARD GIVES HIS VIEWS ON OAKLAND.

By JOHN L. HOWARD, PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS MAN.

Oakland is the sleeping apartment of San Francisco and it seems as if it was going to stay asleep as far as branching out commercially is concerned. The people show a lack of interest in developing the resources of the city. I know of no city of a population of 70,000 which has the commercial opportunities of this city, that has done so little in that direction.

For example, Oakland is thirty years old and there is only one private wharf at which ships can land. The city owns two small piers and that constitutes the entire list of our facilities for doing commerce.

We have not what is called a water commerce. There are two classes of capital in this city, that which belongs to people residing here and doing business in San Francisco and that which is invested in home enterprises. What we want is more money invested in Oakland. Its resources should be developed. Enterprise in this direction should be encouraged.

Another thing is that people spend too much of their money in San Francisco. They go there to make their purchases when they should patronize home tradesmen. There is no reason why dry goods, clothing, groceries, hardware and other articles of trade cannot be sold as cheaply, if not more so, in this city than in San Francisco. The merchants here should be able to sell more cheaply on account of having to pay less rents.

The harbor should be completed. The estuary should be dredged, a retaining wall built and the water front land reclaimed by filling in with the mud from the dredging.

There is no reason why cargoes should not be shipped and landed at this port directly instead of transshipping at San Francisco as is done at present.

WHAT I THINK OF THE FOURTH OF JULY ORATORS.

By HENRY A. NEWBERRY of the TRIBUNE EDITORIAL STAFF.

What do I think of Fourth of July orators? The impression made upon me by all the Fourth of July orations I have ever read or listened to is that the grandeur of the subject baffles expression unless the orators have "the vision and the faculty divine" of an Ingersoll. When one considers the epoch-making nature of our nation's birthday, its far-reaching results in the past and boundless possibilities for the future of humanity, the wonder grows that the average Fourth of July orator is able to handle so vast a theme as satisfactorily as he does.

The speakers this year have had one great advantage over the Fourth of July orators who have preceded them for many a year, and that is the inspiration of the splendid history made by their countrymen so recently that the memory thereof yet thrills the blood like the unrolling of a majestic panorama before our eyes. The sympathy with the weak and oppressed of an alien and inferior race and the noble hatred of oppression and misgovernment that hurried this country into a righteous war that swept from the new world the last vestige of Spain's brutal tyranny, the deeds of individual heroism which that war involved, the victorious nation's humane and magnanimous treatment of its humbled foe—all these things have served to quicken the imagination and clarify the expression of our orators. The result is seen in a higher level of patriotic thought than has characterized our Fourth of July orations since the close of the civil war.

SUCCESS.

I stand at last upon the lonesome height,
The purple-tinged peak that was my goal.
The prize I used to dream of in the night—
The lofty end to which I set my soul—
Is mine today, and all the toil
And all the schemes are done;
But chiding voices echo round
The height that I have won.
At futile toil and unrewarded schemes
The hope that lured me on has fled away.

HEREAFTER.

As one who waking in the night
From off the pillow lifts his head,
While o'er comes a sudden dread,
And yet he dare not seek a light,

And so he will not search it out;
There may be naught, he does not know,
But test to surely doubt may grow.
He has and hugs his trembling doubt.

Oh, anxious soul by thoughts oppressed
Of that dread future far yet near,
Cease to essay the question here;
Death will respond or else give rest.

"Why Women Cannot Sleep."

The highly organized, finely-strung nervous system of women subjects them to terrors of nervous apprehension which no man can ever appreciate. The peace of mind, the mental poise and calmness under stress which is necessary for happy womanhood is only possible when the sensitive feminine organism is in a perfectly healthy condition. If there be any weakness of development in this respect no remedy in the world so completely restores womanly health, nervous vigor and capability as the wonderful "Favorite Prescription" invented by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y. It purifies, heals and strengthens, insures functional regularity, provides physical reinforcement and sustaining power at periods of special weakness and depression.

It is the only medicine which makes the coming of baby safe and comparatively easy. In a personal letter to Dr. Pierce, Mrs. Marguerite Collin, of Cutler, Algoma Co., Ont., says:

"I was a sufferer and was cured by Dr. Pierce's wonderful medicine. When I commenced the medicine I could neither eat nor sleep. My hands and feet were constantly cold; I had a swelling troublesome drain for three months and my monthly periods were never regular. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and cured me. I feel well. I thank the World's Dispensary Medical Association."
